

Studio W in association with Multi-Media Training Institute presents
I AM A MAN

Film Screening
& follow-up talk with Roger Newell

Elmore Nickleberry is the subject of "I AM A MAN" a powerful documentary film about the courageous men who stood up during the sanitation workers strike in Memphis in 1968!

The film will be followed up with a discussion led by Roger Newell, union organizer and community activist!

Enjoy this event in the cultural comfort of Studio W, your community access television studio & black box theater.
